Thought of the Week

"It's kind of fun to do the impossible.”

- Walt Disney

Virtue of the Week

Our virtue of the week is compassion. Compassion is having kind feelings towards someone who may be troubled or hurt. It is caring deeply and wanting to help, even if you don’t know them. Compassion is also being kind and forgiving someone who may have hurt you. By being compassionate, we get to understand others as well as ourselves. Please consider discussing compassion with your child/ren over the week.

Principal's Message

We are almost at the end of yet another Term and looking back it has been a productive and highly successful one across many dimensions. On Wednesday, we had the pleasure in hosting a visit from our Regional Director, Mr Wayne Butler and our Assistant Regional Director, Mr David Roach. During their visit, we had the opportunity to discuss this year's NAPLAN results, the strategies we have in place to work towards achieving our priorities and the improvement plans we have in place for 2015 to ensure we maintain student success and improved school performance.

Both visitors also interacted with staff and students during classroom visits, where they were able to learn from staff of their achievements from actioning our explicit improvement strategies. It was wonderful to hear from our students what they have been learning and where they are heading in terms of their goals. In 2015, our School Strategic Plan will outline our key priorities and related strategies for learning and improvement aligned to the information we have and continue to collect regarding every student.

Next week is the final week of learning for Term Three. Next Friday, we will be celebrating excellence in learning, behaviour and attendance at our Assembly of Excellence. Our Choir will be performing a special item and we will once again be presenting gold '5R' badges to well deserved students. Please mark this event in your diary and help us celebrate the end of another fifty days of learning and excellence.

Until next time,

Lyle Walker
Principal

Problem Solving Strategy of the Week

Problem Solving supports numeracy and literacy development by assisting learners to interpret questions, think beyond what is written and consider alternative ways to answer a question. We have created a new link on our school website that contains information to assist parents and carers who wish to explore problem solving with their children. The link can be located under Our School-Curriculum-Numeracy. This week, our strategy is to Use Logical Reasoning.

Logical reasoning is used for all problem solving. However, there are types of problems that include or imply various conditional statements such as: "if ... then" or "if ... then ... else" or "if something is true, then..." or "if something is not true, then..." The data and information given in the problems can often be displayed in a chart or a table. This kind of problem requires formal logical reasoning as you step through the statements given in the problem.

When using logical reasoning, you carefully examine the conditions within the problem. You may be given the facts that are known to be true, and the rules or conditions involving these facts, you can make other true statements, called conclusions. This process, known as deduction, is often referred to as logical reasoning. When tackling a problem, all the information you need is given. Use reasoning with this information in order to solve the problem.

Snack Time
Kathy, Lisa, and Dan each have a snack. One has a banana, one has a chocolate bar, and one has raisins. Dan does not like candy. Kathy peels her snack. Lisa's snack melts on a hot day. Which snack does each child have?

The Footy Match
The Redskins and Eagles played a football game. The Redskins scored 34 points. Use the clues to figure out how many points the Eagles scored.
- It is less than 38
- It is more than 27
- It is a multiple of 4
- The two digits add up to 10

Watching Travellers
Of 200 travellers surveyed at an airport, 156 carried a mobile phone, 72 carried a laptop computer, and 49 had both items.
- How many travellers had only a mobile phone?
- How many travellers had neither item?

Doing Maths Together at Home
This week, we continue to explore some strategies you can use in your home to assist your child/ren develop their knowledge of mathematics and skills.

Exploring Maths with Your Child
You may feel that the Maths your child is learning at school is different from how you were taught, but you will still be able to support your child in many ways. There are lots of activities you can do at home, using everyday items to help explore Maths with your child.

Sports Scores
- How does your favourite sport tally the score?
- What Maths is presented on the tally?
- How do other sports tally the score, for example, tennis, golf, cricket, netball, football?
- What Maths do you use to find the total of the scores?
- Are there other ways to record the score?
- How long do your favourite sport games go for in minutes and seconds?
- Are they divided into halves, quarters or something else?
- What are the shapes of different playing fields and courts? Talk about edges and angles.
- How can you estimate the perimeter and area of a playing field?

Your Turn to Problem Solve!

Ice Cream Choices
Lindsay has a three scoop ice cream cone. She has a scoop of chocolate, vanilla, and strawberry ice cream. The chocolate ice cream is the last flavour she will eat. The vanilla scoop is not touching the chocolate. What is the order of the ice cream flavours?
Weather Maps

- What is the difference between the minimum and maximum temperature for each day?
- Find a seven day forecast then record the actual temperature for each day and compare. Was the forecast accurate? What were the similarities and differences?
- Use the information on the weather website to explore differences in weather from your area to others.
- How much rain do you get compared to others? Are there differences in temperature?

Growing and Glowing

At Parkhurst State School, we believe that EVERY learner has the capacity to GROW in their learning as well as identifying the specific areas in which they can GLOW across a range of areas from literacy and numeracy to sport, student leadership and Science to give just a few examples. Feedback is a two way process that helps us to celebrate the great things we have learnt and achieved. Feedback also assists us to identify the key areas we can improve in and set learning goals around.

Without feedback, we would never know just how well we are progressing.

Last week, ‘Good News Week’ once again celebrated the great things our learners are achieving. During this special week, many telephone calls were made, face to face interviews were held, SMS text messages and emails were sent and Good News Notes, Postcards and special Letters of Commendation and Achievement were posted home. The response and feedback to this from parents and carers who received these special communications has been fantastic. It is always wonderful and reassuring to know that our ongoing efforts are appreciated and valued. To those individuals who made contact with us, we pass on our thanks and appreciation.

Our Week Ten Newsletter

Next week, our Friday Newsletter will only be available in electronic form. Next Term, we will resume our paper copies. Every Friday, the link to our Newsletter is emailed to over 200 people, including families, businesses, community groups and other individuals. Next week, this link will also be sent via our school FaceBook page and Twitter Feed. We currently have almost 310 FaceBook followers. Our Newsletter can be downloaded from the following link on our school website ... www.parkhurstss.eq.edu.au/index.php/weekly-newsletters/
