Thought for the Week

“You create your opportunities by asking for them.” – Patty Hansen

Virtue of the Week

This week we explore the virtue of patience. Patience is a quiet hope and trust, expecting that things will turn out right. Patience is also about being calm and tolerant when difficult things happen. It also means showing acceptance when we or others make mistakes. Patience is also doing things now so in the future it will develop into something greater. Please consider discussing patience with your child/ren over the next week.

Principal’s Message

It is hard to believe that we are almost halfway through Term Four with the festive season fastly approaching. This week, we hosted three visitors from Allenstown State School who spent an entire school day with us. Their feedback to me regarding the quality of teaching and learning across all of our classrooms, the level of resourcing and individualised support for learners reinforced to me just what a great job we all strive to deliver. The African proverb, “it takes a village to raise a child” is very appropriate, with all members of our school community working in unison to consistently deliver a quality and contemporary education for all learners. It is our shared challenge to ensure we maintain this philosophy through our combined actions as our school continues to grow.

Learner attendance and the following up of absenteeism continues to be a major focus this Term at Parkhurst. As a school, we have seen a noticeable improvement across all classes. Thank you to all parents and carers who are supporting us and assisting us to ensure everyday counts. I have included in this Newsletter some startling statistics regarding the links between achievement and absenteeism, something every parent and carer should consider.

With just five weeks of school remaining, all classroom teachers are in the process of finalising their assessments to inform their end of Semester Two Report Cards. For this reason, the ongoing attendance of your child/ren is essential to ensure an accurate account of their learning is achieved. If your child/ren are absent, please ensure you contact us and let us know so arrangements can be made to assist them with the learning they may miss as a result.

Until next time,

Lyle Walker

Absenteeism Statistics

This Term, Attendance and Absenteeism is a priority at Parkhurst State School. Making sure that every child attends school every day is the key to successful learning. Recent evidence suggests that if a child misses just eight days of school in a year (96% attendance), they are vulnerable to falling behind in school. If attendance drops to 85%, they are at risk of failure. Currently, every class have students with an attendance rate of 85% and below.

Schools can no longer be complacent about student attendance. Our children learn something new in every class every day. Every week, we contact the families of every student with attendance below 90% or who have unexplained absences for three consecutive days so together, we can develop an action plan to make sure every day counts for every student. Below is a table that puts these percentages into real terms and is worth consideration and action.

Strategic Planning

At the centre of Education Queensland’s Strategic Plan 2013-2017: ‘Bright Futures’ is the priority of ‘Successful Learners’. The focus for all schools must be on delivering...

- Strong foundations for lifelong learning and global citizenship
- Creative thinkers shaped by inspiring and challenging learning experiences
- Improved outcomes for all students
- Successful transitions to further learning and work
- Skilling pathways to enhance employability

As schools, our priority actions must...

- Focus on the core learning priorities (reading, writing, numeracy and science) to ensure all students have solid foundations to effectively engage in society and the workforce
- Improve attendance, retention, attainment and transition of students at key points in their schooling journey
- Support whole of school approaches that effectively target resources to meet the needs of every student

In 2014, our school improvement priorities at Parkhurst State School are...

- Reading comprehension
- Writing
- Numeracy
- Vocabulary
- Attendance

At the core of each of these is our signature pedagogy or teaching approach of explicit instruction which will deliver school wide improvement and the success of all learners.
School Improvement

This year, every five weeks, all teachers have conducted assessments to capture the reading achievement of all learners. This information is collated and analysed to guide our whole of school reading improvement agenda.

Information gathered regarding each and every learner assists teachers to develop and set with their learners individual reading goals. This information also assists teachers to make adjustments and modifications to their classroom programs, including their reading programs to ensure the individual needs of all learners, including those requiring additional support and extension are met.

At the beginning of the year, an aspirational target of 80% of all learners in every classroom achieving at or above a ‘C’ or three star (★★★) standard in reading by the end of 2013 was set. Our latest five weekly data capture indicates that currently 66% of our 290 learners are meeting this standard. The target of 30% was also set for all learners in every class achieving either an ‘A’ (★★★★★) or ‘B’ (★★★★) standard by the end of 2013. Currently our progress towards this target is 46%. This information assists us to make adjustments to our reading improvement agenda and identify where we need to invest our energies.

At the current time, 28% of our 290 learners are achieving in the area of reading at an ‘A’ or five star (★★★★★) standard according to the school’s reading standards based on the region’s reading benchmarks and expectations. This achievement would not have been possible without the consistent efforts of our entire staff and the support of parents and carers who have maintained reading comprehension as the focus. Well done everyone!

2014 Class Structures

This week, we had anticipated releasing our draft class structures for 2014 based on our current effective enrolment. As a result of increased enrolments this week, our capacity to provide spaces for new students across all year levels was lessened. Over the next week, we will be working with Education Queensland Human Resource Consultants to develop a Class Structure that will provide increased capacity for future growth across all year levels, utilising the facilities we currently have available. It is anticipated that this information will be communicated in next week’s Newsletter.

Leaving Us or Joining Us?

We are seeking any information from parents and carers that can assist us in the accurate prediction of our student enrolment numbers for 2014. If your child/ren are departing the school at the end of this year, we would love to hear from you. This week, we have made telephone calls to the parents and carers of children who have indicated that they will be leaving. This information will allow us to accurately determine the number of classes we will have in 2014 as well as the staffing and facilities required.

Weekly Attendance Statistics

This Term, attendance and absenteeism are our priority and focus. To assist all members of our school community to make ‘every day count’, the weekly attendance percentages for every class will be published. Our current school wide daily attendance rate is 90.9%. Our aim this Term is to reach 96% and have classes of ‘Every Day Counts’ Champions.

Responsible Behaviour Plan

Over the past week, all students have been reminded that they need to report incidents as they occur to staff. There has been an increase in the number of telephone calls we receive regarding incidents that the Office has no knowledge of. Your child/ren’s class teachers should always be the first port of call. If we know about it, we can do something about it straight away. It is not always possible for the Office, including the Principal to be aware of every incident that may have occurred during the day. For incidents regarded as ‘moderate’, ‘major’ or ‘severe’ all parents and carers will be contacted immediately by the Principal.

At Parkhurst State School, we operate a ‘Hands Off’ Policy and any student who does not abide by this expectation will receive consequences as outlined in the school’s Responsible Behaviour Plan. A copy of the revised Plan will soon be available for download from our Website, with copies distributed to all families at the commencement of the 2014 school year.

Year Seven Graduation

The Graduation of our Year Seven students is scheduled for Thursday December 05th 2013. As in previous years, this is one of a very few opportunities we have as an entire school community to join together to celebrate this significant milestone and achievements. All students and staff will be bussed to Central Queensland University from 9:00 a.m. As in previous years, all parents, carers and friends of our school are invited to attend.

Premier’s Reading Challenge

This year 84 000 students across Queensland successfully completed the eighth Premier’s Reading Challenge. During the challenge, students read more than 1.7 million books. This is a great outcome as reading, apart from being an enjoyable activity in its own right, is important for improving student literacy and learning outcomes. Congratulations to our students who participated.

Parkhurst State School proudly offers a variety of teaching styles and classroom structures with a clear goal to place all learners in environments that best suit their individual learning needs. Class structures are determined by the number of learners in a Year Level, the ability to provide capacity for enrolment growth and meeting the mandated class size targets of twenty five students in Prep to Year Three classes and twenty eight students in Years Four to Seven.
