Thought of the Week
“You can’t wait for inspiration. You have to go after it with a club.” - Jack London

Virtue of the Week
Our virtue of the week is orderliness. Orderliness is being neat and living with a sense of harmony. It is being organised and having a place for things when you need them. Orderliness is planning something so that it works, doing it step by step instead of going in circles. Orderliness is putting first things first and taking care of the things you need to do. Orderliness is also being punctual and routinely arriving on time. Please consider discussing being orderly with your child/ren this week.

Principal’s Message
Last Thursday and Friday, I attended the Central Queensland Regional Principals’ Conference in Gladstone. The focus of the two days was on developing and sustaining high performing Teams. This theme was delivered through a number of keynote and workshop presentations, led by Principal colleagues, within and beyond our Region. The key messages of teams being the key to school improvement, that improvement needs to occur child by child, that A to E achievement data is an indicator of every learner’s success and inclusivity is our moral purpose resonated with me and confirmed the great work we undertake on a daily basis at Parkhurst State School.

Yesterday, our Assistant Regional Director, Mr Paul Wood spent time in the school, visiting classrooms to see and hear for himself the good work undertaken by teachers in their classrooms to ensure every learner is succeeding and realising our school vision of “every Parkhurst Learner being literate, numerate, safe, happy and learning every day.” Mr Wood also provided the school’s Leadership Team with some constructive feedback in preparation for our visit by Mr Noel Seawright from the School Improvement Unit on the first day of next Term.

All teachers are in the process of finalising their End of Semester One Report Cards which will be emailed to all families on Tuesday June 21st 2016. Included in this Newsletter is a form that was sent home to all families earlier this week to update any information and details. If we could receive this back as soon as possible that would be wonderful. On a final note, it is with much delight that I am able to announce that Mr Glenn Olive has been appointed as Parkhurst State School’s permanent Deputy Principal. Please join me in congratulating Glenn when you see him out and about around the school.

Until next week,

Lyle Walker

A Day Made Better

A Day Made Better rewards and recognises exceptional teachers across the country. The company OfficeMax invite parents, students, fellow staff members, or anyone who has ever known an exceptional teacher to show their appreciation by giving them the recognition they deserve. Exceptional teachers do more than just teach; they inspire, nurture and encourage students to build knowledge, confidence and lifeskills.

This year, ten exceptional teachers will be rewarded for their inspirational work with a surprise event including prizes valued at $5,000 and an Apple iPad for their classroom. So if you know of a teacher that should be celebrated, show your support and nominate now at the following link ... www.adaymadebetter.com.au/

Our combined target is $500 this year.

Jeremy Marou

On Monday this week, one of our parents, Mr Jeremy Marou took time out of his incredibly busy schedule to become an Artist in Residence for the morning to work with our Year 4/5 Neighbourhood Classes. During the two hour sessions, Jeremy demonstrated his amazing skills on the guitar accompanied by incredible vocals.

It was great for learners to also have the opportunity to refine their ukulele skills and hear a special song about to feature at a significant event in Queensland. Thanks again Jeremy and Mr David St Henry for coordinating this wonderful learning experience!

Are you collecting your Reading PAWS?
It was a wonderful opportunity for learners to see and hear a live performance.

If there are any changes to current information, we would appreciate the form returned as soon as possible.
